

CRH Library

Terms & Conditions of Membership

In signing the library application form you are agreeing to abide by these terms & conditions.

- Library users must respect other library users and members of the library services team. Noise should be kept to a minimum.
- Food and drinks are permitted in the library, but care should be taken around PC's and users are required to wipe down services with clinell wipes after use.
- Mobile phones should be switched to silent mode and all calls should be taken / made outside of the library.
- Books should be renewed or returned by the due date stamped.
- A valid library card or ID badge must be presented to borrow/renew any items.
- Outside of staffed opening hours, books can be returned using the self-service machine or the library return book bin.
- Borrowers are responsible for all items issued to their card and will be charged for lost, damaged or non-returned items including any administration costs incurred.
- Any change of personal details should be notified to the library.
- A CCTV system is in operation within the Library and wider Education Centre to aid the prevention, investigation and detection of crime and the Centre users' safety.
- Photocopying must comply with current copyright legislation and terms of the NHS Copyright Licensing Agency (CLA) Licence. Further details are located next to the photocopier.
- The use of PC's in the Library (and any other IT equipment) is bound by Trust IM & T Policy. (see relevant Trust Policies for further information)